“ To the family of Jay know you have our sincere condolences. Walking in the nursing home and seeing Jay smile were good visits for both of us. I would laugh as Jay wouldn't remember my name but say I know you, I do, through Pam. Last night it was a joy to meet the family. Amanda know many are praying for you. You won't understand what a great loss you have had until later in life. God blessed Jay with many things and good people in her life. She maintained her beautiful smile even in pain. May the family remember her through great memories, and in your hearts.

“ Carl and Barbara Grubbs are sharing on the loss of your loved one. She was beloved by both of us and the Volunteers of Contemporary Arts Inc. When we began the SAX: Music Camp for youth ages 4 -17 with Govans Economic Management Senate Inc. in 1997 she was there for us. As the Community Organizer of GEMS she had a significant role in the start up of this youth services project and its funding.

Through the years after leaving GEMS she continued to befriend us and give us encouragement and support. She will surely be missed by all of us. Please accept our condolences for the family.
