“ જ્યારે આપણું કોઈ ધરતિથી વિદાય લે છે ત્યારે દુઃખ થાય છે, પરંતુ સત્ય એ છે કે આ શરીર નશ્વર છે.

આપણે પ્રાર્થના કરવી જોઈએ કે,

જે પ્રિયજન આજે આપડી વચ્ચે નથી ભગવાન તેમની આત્મા ને મોક્ષ પ્રદાન કરે.

“ My deepest condolences to your family. This past year I have spoken to you every week and I have enjoyed working with you. You have made me appreciate the hard work that our type of project requires and you made it enjoyable. We were also able to connect discussing our kids and I will miss our discussions.

“ I met Jainik in 2018 shortly after starting with NextEra. Although we didn't work together during that time, we sat near each other and he was always so supportive and helpful to me as I started my career.

Over the past year we did have the opportunity to work very closely together on a special project. We would spend many days in meetings and calls together and I really got to know him better as a professional, and a friend. He was intelligent, kind, authentic, thoughtful and would always take the time to calm me down when work was stressful. He adored his kids, wife, and family so much, as his face would visibly light up whenever he talked about them. In November he flew to Florida and we had dinner with the project team. I remember his wife FaceTimed him with his kids and it was clear that getting to see and talk to them had been the highlight of his day.

He always had a smile on his face and he was genuinely a pleasure to be around. Jainik was a very special person and I'm lucky to have gotten to work and learn from him. My thoughts are with all who loved him, and we will miss him deeply.

“ Our deepest condolences to the Patel family. I worked with Jainik as a part of FPL/Next Era/Home Warranty and he was smart, funny, and kind. We had babies about the same time and would compare notes on our lack of sleep and general chaos being parents to littles. He will be missed! - Jane Freidinger
