

Jake Lee Taylor

June 9, 1931 - August 30, 2009

JAKE LEE TAYLOR, son of Katie Brown and the late Jake Taylor, was born on June 9, 1931 in Chevy, South Carolina. He departed this life on August 30, 2009, after a brief illness. He received his education at Butler High School in Hartsville, South Carolina. At the age of eighteen he entered the United States Army where he served from 1951-1953. After serving two years in the Army and receiving an honorable discharge, he became employed at Weyer Houser Company where he worked until he retired. On April 3, 1960, he married the late Viola (Barr) Taylor, who preceded him in death, February 3, 2000m after forty years of marriage. Jake was well known as "Bummie". He moved to South Carolina in 2007 to be close to his mother. After the death of his wife, he became a "momma's boy". Anyone who knew could depend on him if he said he would take you somewhere. He will truly be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Katie Brown; one brother, Robert Stratham of Baltimore, Maryland; four sisters, Lottie Mae Lewis of Baltimore, Ernestine Hunter of Baltimore, Carrie Worthan of Baltimore and Thomasina Stratham of New York; two brothers-in-law of Baltimore, Jack Worthan and Jwett Hunter; two sisters-in-law, Gwendolyn Stratham of Baltimore and Verola maple of Ridge Way, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and a special friend, Leroy Johnson and son, Little John of Bishopville, South Carolina. He was also preceded in death by his step-father, John Brown and his brother, Earl Stratham.

Tribute Wall

“ Jake Lee Taylor

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Taylor's ! I would like to convey my condolences to you all. Living for 78 years is wonderful as the bible say at Ps. 90:10, " Some person will live to be 70 years and others 80 years because of speical mightiness".One thing is for SURE our creator of all thongs cares for you all, 1 Peter 5:7. It will be a great day when dying is no more and we can live forever in a paradise earth. I am so looking forward to that. May all the many cherished times with Mr. Jake help to make thing a little better on the journey of lifr ahead.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my warm and sincere condolences to the family of Jake. May you be comforted by our loving heavenly father. Losing a loved one is truly a most difficult event to go through. Sadly, death stalks us all. But was this God's purpose for us? According to the bible, Jehovah didnt desire sickenss or death for us, and he promises at Isaiah 33:24 that one day "No resident will ever say again, "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." As for Jake and the millions of others who have died, God promises that they will be ressurected back to life. Isn't that a wonderful hope to look forward to? Yes, one day they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May you find much comfort and strength in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM