

Jalesia Brenae Freeman

November 14, 1991 - December 21, 2023

Jalesia Brenae Freeman affectionately known as JoJo went to be with the Lord on December 21, 2023.

She was born on November 14, 1991 in Virginia and a resident of Henrico County, Virginia. She graduated from Hermitage High School in 2010 and furthered her education at Richard Bland college. Jalesia was currently employed at the State Corporation Commission.

JoJo was a “Ray of Sunshine” and her sweet spirit lit any room that she walked in. She had a heart of gold and a great love for her family. Her love for GOD was evident in her life and she didn’t mind telling you about HIM. She accepted Christ at an early age and even touched nations with overseas missions. If you ever needed a prayer partner, she was only a phone call away. She loved to read, travel, visit museums and be by the ocean. Jalesia was a Woman of God who encouraged others, loved hard and a loyal friend. She is truly a blessing from God, and for many meeting her-considered it a honor. Her life will forever leave an everlasting footprint.

Jalesia leaves to cherish in her memories: her husband, Ricky Freeman Jr.; children, Grace Joelle Freeman and Ricky Freeman III; parents, Chantel Cox and James Tyler; sisters, Jailin Cox, Jade Porcher, and Chyna Porcher; grandparents, Joan Cox and Carrington Kenney Sr.; aunts, Tiesha Holman (Sammy), Karen Tyler, Cordelia Tyler, and Elma Tyler; uncles, Carrington Kenney Jr. and Alphonso Tyler; in-laws, Ricky Freeman Sr. (Pam) and Zerita

Crewe; brother-in-law, Rikihi Hopkins; sister-in-laws, Rikki Freeman, Rashey Freeman, Shaneka Dorsey, and Niesha Hairston; and a host of great aunts and uncles, cousins, extended family, and beloved friends.

To the family: Please accept my sincere condolences. My grandson introduced me to this beautiful soul when they were in high school. Jaleisa was always respectful and a delight to be around. I remember how beautiful she was on prom night. Even though that was years ago, I have often thought of Jaleisa. Rest in peace. You have earned your wings. 🙏🥹. Donna Love (Landon's Grandmother)
