“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I feel compelled to reach out to your family at this most difficult time because I, too, have felt the sting of death in my family. To lose a child is the worst pain anyone can experience. Please be assured that the Almighty, Jehovah God, shares your pain and is eager to restore your dear daughter back to you (Job 14:14,15). May you gain much strength, courage, hope and comfort by reflecting on His wonderful promises found at Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:4.

“ I am so sorry to learn of your sorrow. The loss of a loved one is never an easy thing to handle. We never get over such, we can only learn to live with or without the one we have lost. Our Heavenly Father never intended death for mankind. He actually hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon he will stop it once and for all. (1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37: 9-11; Revelations 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. I hope that knowing this will help to take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. These things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.
