

Jamaal L. Smoot

December 28, 1982 - July 12, 2002

Journey of LifeGod bestowed the miraculous blessing of Jamaal Lamar Smoot onto Timothy Lamar Smoot and Sandra A. Hamilton-Robinson on December 28, 1982 here in Baltimore. From the time Jamaal began to walk, he displayed his aggressive nature toward life and love for his family and friends. His determination and smooth character seemed to woo just about everyone who came near him, especially the young ladies. Jamaal attended Gardenville Elementary School after getting a head start on education at the Ivy League Learning Center. He went on to attend Northeast Middle School and ultimately became a member of graduating Class of 2000 at Mergenthaler Vo-Tech High School. At the time the Lord called Jamaal to be with Him, Jamaal was in his final semester at TESST College, where he was receiving training in electrical, computer and telecommunications technology. Jamaal had been employed by Waterford Caseworks and Tops Unlimited, both in Camden Yards, since his freshman year at Mervo. Through his employment Jamaal developed a reputation as a devoted worker and quality craftsman in custom cabinetry, taking advantage of all the overtime he could get. In fact, Jamaal enjoyed the craft (and the overtime pay!) so much, his father had to force him to cut back his hours, from time to time, to get him to concentrate on his studies. Jamaal had tons of friends, many of which he has known since early childhood. For the fellows, "Smoot" was their "main man." For the ladies, "Jamaal," was their "Boo." To his mother Sandra, his stepmother Terri, his grandmothers Marguerite and Ruby, his aunts Pam and Lynnette and his sister Jaida, he was God's perfect angel. To his father Tim, his stepfather Troy, his grandfather Ike, Troy's father Hosie, his uncles Tony, Jamie, Sam and Keith and his brothers James and Little Troy, he was as "smooth as silk." Nothing will ever even slightly diminish the infinite memories we all shared with him. God love you and keep you in His heavenly gates. Jamaal is survived by his four parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, sister and brothers (all mentioned above), his cousins Tony Smoot-Russell and Tonia Gambrell, and a host of extended family members and friends. "THE DAYS THAT ARE GONE WITHOUT YOU" Even though you are not here today We all think about all the things we do and say. To honor your love that was left behind, We remember it with a sign Of hope, love, and peace that you always had. That is why we feel so sad. Because you never have to take it with you, Because you know that, you loved us very much too. You are with God in heaven above. We surround you with our endless love. Because we will always remember the days that are without you!! Love You Jamaal Lamar Smoot! Your Sister, Jaida Smoot

“ *Dear Mrs. Sandra I never knew your son, but as they say birds of a feather flock together, him and Kris had to be small blessings to those who knew them. If ever in life we need to stop and reminisce, take that time to treasure those taken before thier time. Life truly is love, so love the life and time your precious child spent on this earth and the wonderful memories he left behind. May God Bless and watch over you. “ Why? I wondered but, God knows best. Too soon I'd say but, God still knows best. I'll see you when I get there. It's hard knowing that your not around physically but I know your with me spiritually. I just wished you could have seen me starting my first day at college as a matter of fact you did and I know you were very proud. But until I get to see you again I have to do what I got to do. Everything I do in class it sort of reminds me of you. Jamaal there will always be apart of you FOREVER IN MY HEART!! I LOVE YOU!! To your Mom and Dad I don't know what to really say but you have a great son who will always be remebered by many. “ Dear Sandra & Tim I want you both to know you have my deepest sympathy. My prayers are with you. I know that with the lost of a child comes great pain and suffering so if you need me no matter where or what time call me and I will help to comfort you. Sandra, this is the time you will need comfort from close family and friends. So, in the 39 years we've known each other if you never used my shoulder to lean on before, then now is the time. Even though Jamaal, will be greatly missed, he is at peace at home with the Lord. We will miss Jamaal, but we must try to remember all the good times everyone had with him the short time he was with us. Sandra, I will see you within the next two weeks. “ Tim and Sandra; We would like to extend our deepest sympathy during the loss of your beloved son. We too share your loss, our son was called Home many years ago. Please know in your heart and mind that God loves us more than we could ever imagine. You were sincerely blessed with him for a while. Always know how Jamaal's presence enriched your lives. We are praying and asking God to send His Angels to annoint you and your family from the tops of your heads to the very soles of your feet. May He continue to supply all of your needs. He will always be just a prayer away. Tim and Sandra I can never forget your kindness during our years together at Morgan. I have no doubt in my mind that your son was a fine young man.
