

Jamal O. Rowlett

November 9, 1987 - December 16, 2007

JAMAL OWEN ROWLETT, affectionately known as "Mal," departed this life suddenly on December 16, 2007. He was born on November 9, 1987, in Baltimore, Maryland to Furman Holman, Jr., and Wanda Hill. Jamal was warm, caring and fun-loving person. Jamal attended Baltimore City Public Schools for a short period of time, and he later enrolled in Baltimore County Public schools. After graduating from Randallstown High School in 2005, he was employed by Ollies Bargain Outlet and then Liberty Security. Jamal had many interests which included playing basketball, riding dirt bikes, collecting cars and motorcycles. At any time, you could find Jamal sucking his thumb and playing with his hair. He also enjoyed spending time with his devoted friend Janay. "Mal" lived each day to the fullest. He was loved by everyone who knew him and will be sincerely missed. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his mother, Wanda Hill; stepfather, Parren Hill; father, Furman Holman; six brothers, Trent (TJ) Thorne, Antoine Jackson, Justin, Lamar, Davon, and Chris Holman; one sister, Taneka Holman; three grandmothers, Jackie Rowlett, Lillibell Thorne, and Jeanette Holman; three grandfathers, Samuel Thorne, Furman Holman, Sr., and James Thompson; godmother, Vanessa Price, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. When death takes a loved one away, it pains us like nothing else, and it is so hard to come to terms with. Know that the God above feels our pain, and he cares so deeply about what you are going through, because he is the God of all comfort. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. Will sickness and death always be a part of things? 1st Cor 15:26 in the bible says this, "As the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." So God promises to end the enemy death forever. Will the dead live again? Daniel 12,2 says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Also John 5:28,29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So one day the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and will come back to life." May you find much comfort in the hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
