“ Hi ! Holman's ! I would like to send my condolences to all. Life is not fair, a young man like Jamall did not fulfill his days as Ecc. 12:1 say. We can look to the future with great Joy knowing that death will be done away, Isa.25:8.I am so looking forward to that happening. May the journey of life keep getting better for you all by means of all the many cherish memories of Jamall staying close.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I'm so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. Death is so unfair, especially when a person is so young like your Jamall was. When these tragedies happen we all wonder why? Why did my loved one have to be taken so young? I know, because I also lost my only son at a very young age. What comforts me is the promise of the resurrection. When Jesus was on earth he brought many people back to life, including a little 12-year old girl, and the only son of a widow. Please read Mark 5:38-43. Jesus showed on a small scale what he will soon do as the powerful king of Jehovah's kingdom. All authority has been given to Jesus by his father to resurrect the dead. John 5:25-29. One day the dead will hear his voice and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. Family, may you be comforted by this wonderful promises, which promises will never fail. May your precious memories of Jamall also be a comforting force in your lives. If you wish to contact me at my e-mail address, please do, so I can share more comforting thoughts with you from the bible. Take care and God bless.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
