“ My most heartfelt condolences on the death of your loved one. Although I didn" know Mr. DeShazp, my heart goes out to you, because I know how it feels to lose a loved one in death. It"s a heartbreaking situation, that we can never get used to. The bible man Job wanted to know, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? At JOB 14,15 the bible gives us the answer. It says, "You will call, and I myself will answer you. "For the work of your hands, you will have a yearning." Yes one day, Jehovah God and his son Jesus will call mankind from the grave to live forever in peaceful conditions. Acts 24:15 lets us know that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous, and the unrighteous. ONe day, if we are faithful, we will see our loved ones again. May you draw comfort from the scriptures as we await his promises to be fulfilled.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
