

James A. Wall

August 5, 1952 - April 26, 2003

James A. Wall, Jr., son of the late James A. Wall, Sr. and Rose Wall, was born on August 5, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 26, 2003 after a recently diagnosed condition. He received his education at Northwestern High School in Baltimore. He was a graduate of Morgan State University. He received a degree in Social Work. He was employed at the Department of Housing as a housing inspector. He was an advocate for troubled teens in the Justice Resource Department. He also worked in a Baltimore Group Home on weekends. He married the former Sheila Deener, and out of that union a son was born, Lee. Jimmy had many friends and family who loved him. His quiet, loving spirit will be sincerely missed. He was always a true friend and devoted husband and father. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Sheila L. Wall; son, Lee; father-in-law, Garnal Deener; sisters-in-law, Brenda, Pam and Jessie; nieces, Ashley, Sierra, Shanta and Tramaine; nephews, Michael Washington and Little Michael; cousins, Chris Smith, Rose Thomas, Loretta Wall and Charles Wall; and a host of other relatives and friends, “ *Sheila I am sorry about your lost but we all know that he is in a better place I would like you to pray this pray to help you with your healing. Father you are the God who supplies all my need according to your riches in glory by Christ Jesus In your Word you said to cast all ye cares upon you because you care for me. it is your will that I prosper and be in health, even as my soul prospers. In the name of Jesus, I pray that my financial condition line up with your word according to my diligence and faithfulness. I thank you for giving me power to get wealth. for rebuking the devourer for his/her sake and for favor that is exceeding, abundant, above all that I am able to ask or think according to your power that works in me. Father open a floodgate of blessings that takes over my life. Jesus, I bless you for making me a blessing and in your name I pray Amen.
