

James Adams

March 2, 1959 - January 4, 2003

James Adams, son of the late Harold and Delores m. Adams, was born on March 2, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 4, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at City College in Baltimore. As a young child, and throughout his adult life, he demonstrated a very strong work ethic that was recognized by all that knew him. He worked in construction until he became ill. All who knew James remember him as very affectionate and witty, with a great sense of humor. For example, if one complained around him, he would make a comment while smiling such as "Do you want some cheese to go with that wine?" He kept his family and friends laughing. James loved the Lord, and welcomed going home to be with Jesus. The cross he is wearing is the cross he wore daily. During his illness last year, he shared with his sisters, Janice and Haroldine, that he saw Jesus twice and experienced complete peace, love and harmony during these times. He conveyed to us that it was complete comfort and he was ready to go. We are grateful that our Merciful Heavenly Father allowed James to be with us just a little while longer. James leaves to mourn: his sister, Haroldine Simpkins; his sister, Janice Adams-King; his brother, Michael Harold Adams; two brothers-in-law, three nephews and one niece; special friend, Trina Watson; a host of other relatives and friends. Dear James, The Lord saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, So He put His arms around you, and whispered, "come with me." With teared eyes, we watched you suffer, and saw you drift away, A golden heart stopped beating, a beautiful smile at rest, God broke our hearts to prove he only takes the best.Lovingly submitted,The Family
