

James Thomas Adams

January 31, 1931 - March 15, 2013

JAMES THOMAS ADAMS departed this life on March 15, 2013 at the age of eighty-two. He received his education in Petersburg, Virginia and was employed at Bethlehem Steel from which he retired after over thirty years. He received Christ in his earlier years and became a member of faith Baptist Church.

“Tom,” as everyone called him, was known as a ladies man in his younger years. He didn't let grass grow underneath his feet, always about making a dollar. He believed that if you didn't have a job then you make one. He loved cars and trucks, which he had a few of his own. They were always spotless, mainly the red truck that seemed like you would see him shining everyday.

Underneath all that he was “Mr. Tough Guy” at times . He had a good heart for people . He enjoyed sitting around people talking about the good old days and all the things he has done and experienced in life. He would do anything he could to help anyone and known by someone everywhere he went. He will be truly missed.

Preceding his death are his father, Mr. Sylvester Richardson; mother, Mrs. Louise Taylor; one brother George Richardson; and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Mason Woodley.

He leaves to cherish: one son, Keith Dillard of Atlanta, Georgia; three daughters, Gloria Parham of Brooklyn, New York, Sandra Hance and Stacey Inabinett; one sister Mrs. Gloria Richardson Marrow; devoted cousin, Ms. Nolie Norris; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ To the Family and Friends of James Thomas Adams,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
