

James Alban Jones

October 6, 1946 - September 5, 2005

JAMES ALBAN JONES, son of the late James Albott Jones and Modesta Claiborne Jones, was born on October 6, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on September 5, 2005, after a lengthy illness. "Jim" or "Snooks," as he was called was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, but later went to Job Corps to finish. He was trained at the International Culinary Institute to be a Jr. Chef. He enjoyed cooking all kinds of wonderful dishes. Jim was a very intelligent, and well read person, who sometimes would read a book a day, just because it was there. Before his illness he worked numerous jobs. He was a Christian man, who truly loved the Lord. Everyone knew how kind-hearted he was. He was a dedicated father, brother, and friend and will be dearly missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: the mother of his children, Maybelle Jones; two sons, Anthony Mitchell and Troy Jones; one daughter, Kimberly D. Jones (his son, Jonathan D. Jones; as well as his grandson, Alphonso, preceded him in death); two brothers, Benjamin L. Jones and Jonathan D. Jones (two brothers, preceded him in death, Larry A. Jones and Edward L. Jones, who passed in April); three sisters, Esther Martin, Patricia Jones and Diane Brown (one sister, Virginia Jones and one foster sister, Gwendolyn Jefferson who passed in June 2005); one godsister, Barbara Lloyd who still lives on the street Jim or Snooks was raised on; one uncle, Linward Claiborne of New York; cousins, Linda, Lawrence, Debra, and Karen; six grandchildren, Troy, Jr., Darryl, Justin, Jessica, Anthony and Antwon; two great grandchildren, Troy III and Ty'Auna;

and a host of nieces, nephews, great nephews and great nieces, (one who he was raising), Ashley Brown; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
