

James Alfred Lyle

March 20, 1939 - July 22, 2006

James Alfred Lyle Sr. was the sixth of nine children born to the late David and Kisiah Lyle. He was born on March 20th 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. James departed this life after a short illness at Maryland General Hospital on Saturday July 22, 2006. James was raised in Baltimore City where he attended Baltimore City public schools. James excelled in most vocational trade skills. At an early age, he was trained by his dad to do concrete stucco, painting and all manner of home improvement. James was devoted to his work in construction thereby earning him the title of “the best concrete and stucco man in Baltimore City”. He continued working until his illness. James loved to socialize with others especially if it included fishing or bowling. As a child, he was constantly getting into one escapade after another - often being reprimanded for his antics. One might say he had a Tom Sawyer/Huckleberry Finn personality. If growing up in today’s society, he would be described as precocious, adventurous, curious, energetic and mischievous. He had an uplifting spirit and a laugh that was contagious and warm. He was known to “fall down laughing.” He was a compassionate, friendly, humorous and loving person. He would often help others- even opening his home to those in need. James was a wonderful father, grandfather, brother and friend. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss James and his gregarious nature. James leaves to mourn: four daughters – Sandy, Valerie, Darlene, and LaShawn; four sons- Jerome, Stevie, Terry, and Ricky (two sons preceded him in death: James Jr. and Jeffrey) ;1 son in-law; 1 daughter in-law; five sisters- Grace, Marian,

Louisa, Elissa and Barbara; three brothers- David, Ralph and Joseph; twenty grandchildren, six great grandchildren; 1 sister in-law; 4 brothers in-law; 1 beloved friend Yvette Smith and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of James. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but not so in the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible's loving promises. This is what I want to share with you. First Corinthians 15:26 helps us to see that death is our enemy that Almighty God will destroy one day. There is hope for our loved ones who have died. Acts 24:15 tells us - "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S.
