

James Allen McCoy

September 15, 1932 - September 13, 2005

Unexpectedly, on Tuesday, September 13, 2005, James Allen McCoy, Jr., fell asleep in death, in his home in Baltimore, Maryland. James Allen McCoy, Jr. was born on September 15, 1932, in Columbus County, North Carolina to James Alan McCoy and Inise Lyons. He was the oldest of four children, two brothers: Woodrow-(D) and Elton, and a sister, Celetine Mosses. He later moved to Baltimore where he finished his education. He married Ann Nelson and from their union were born fourteen children: Christopher-(D), Denise, Dianna, James, Michael-(D), Jonathan, Marsha, Monica, Carolyn, Cheryl, Vincent, Ronald-(D), Dwayne and Michele. After Ann's death in 1972, he later married Marceleine Wilkens in 1973 where he inherited six step-children. They remained in that union until 1994. He worked as a Laborer in the tire industry for most of his working career. He was baptized as a Witness of Jehovah on November 4, 1958, while he endeavored to raise his family in a god-fearing manner. James was very rich in family and friends. Along with his mother, two siblings and eleven children, he will be remembered and loved by his two sons-in-law; James Jones and Charles Harrell; one daughter-in-law, Gloria McCoy; thirty-one grandchildren, forty-nine great-grandchildren and a host of other family members and friends.

“ *Sorry to hear about your loss. Please accept my condolences. The Bible rightly calls death our enemy at 1 Corinthians 15:26. May you continue to look forward to that promised earthly paradise (Luke 23:43, Matthew 5:5) as Jehovah gives you comfort and strength for each day. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn that your family has loss James to death. I am sure that this was a difficult time for you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
