

James Earl Alston

May 24, 1948 - September 29, 2011

JAMES EARL ALSTON, son of Anne Frances and the late Willie Lee Alston, was born on May 24, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life peacefully on September 29, 2011 to join that cloud of witness which included his brother, Willie Lee Alston and sister, Shirley M. Eason, after a lengthy illness.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1972 he graduated from the Baltimore Culinary School. Upon completion he held several jobs as a chef: the Holiday Inn, his most proud position was at Saint Joseph Hospital as a Dietary coordinator and his last position was at Morgan State University before he came ill.

James, lovingly known as "La" made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Anne Frances Alston; sons, James Alston, Jr. and James Alston 2nd ; daughters, Latoya Alston and Alyssia Alston; brother, Ronald Alston; sister, Lela Hughes and Francine Ball; granddaughter, Kala; three aunts, Lillian Heartwell, Josephine Stephenson and Carrie Cornish; one uncle, Major Alston; life partner, Angie Mackey; nieces, nephews, and a host of other family and friends.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are never alone. You can find much comfort in the only Scriptures which assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. Please accept my deepest sympathies.
