

James K. Ames Jr.

August 19, 1957 - May 30, 2017

JAMES KERNEL AMES, JR. was born August 19, 1957 to the late Minister James Kernel Ames, Sr. and Minnie Cooper Ames. He was affectionately known as Jimmy.

Jimmy attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Walbrook Senior High School in 1975. He later attended Morgan State College where he majored in accounting.

He was baptized at an early age by the late Reverenced Lorenzo Graves and sang on the Children's choir at Calvary Baptist Church.

Jimmy was a music lover and in the day the best stereo equipment. He liked to draw and was an avid thrift store shopper. He loved tinkering, often fixing things and taking things apart. He was a cat lover and had a number of pets.

Jimmy was kind-hearted, quiet and very helpful.

He was a long-term resident of Marie's Comfort and Care.

After a lengthy illness, Jimmy passed away at Gilchrist Hospice, Joseph Richey House, Inc. on May 30, 2017. He leaves to mourn: his loving and devoted sister, Linda Ames Massey; his nephew, Matthew Allen-Ames; a dear friend, Lisa Ellison; residents of Marie's Comfort and Care; and a host of family and friends.
