

James Anthony Johnson

December 1, 1956 - May 27, 2006

Suddenly last Saturday morning, May 27, 2006, James Anthony Johnson answered the call of the Lord and departed this life. JAMES JOHNSON was born on December 1, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland to Reatha Owens Johnson and the late James Paul Johnson. James was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and attended the Baltimore City Community College. He was employed by the City of Baltimore for over 20 years. He last worked in electrical maintenance where he received numerous certificates and awards. On January 3, 1990, James was joined in holy matrimony to Sandra Stern, and from this union two children were born: Jalesa Ann and Jared Antonio. He is also survived by a son, Jameson Anthony Johnson. At a very early age, under the guidance of his parents, he began his Christian walk, at the First United Church of Jesus Christ Apostolic. He shared a very personal relationship with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. James truly loved the Lord and faithfully shared his Christian witness. He joined the Mt. Pleasant Church and Ministries under the spiritual leadership of Bishop Clifford M. Johnson Jr., in 1996. James supported the church through his faithfulness and participation in the Set Free and the Evangelism Ministries. James had a generous and loving heart. Wherever he went he shared God's love and brought a climate of love and caring. James was an avid reader and he enjoyed writing to express his inner most thoughts as he opened his heart to loved ones. He loved Street Ministry and enjoyed ministering to bursting and wounded souls. James' spirit will continue to be with his wife, Sandra; his children, Jameson, Jalesa and

Jared; his mother, Reatha Johnson; his sisters, Griscelda Massie, Mamie Hawkins; Belvin Midgett; his brother, Sheldon Johnson; and his father-in-law, Stanley Stern. He also leaves to mourn seven sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, seven aunts, six uncles, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends. " I fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have finished my course, I have kept the Faith." 2 Timothy

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
