

James Arthur Faulkner

December 29, 1941 - March 7, 2006

JAMES ARTHUR FAULKNER, JR. departed this life on Tuesday, March 7, 2006 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He was born on December 29, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland to Evelyn Faulkner and the late James Arthur Faulkner, Sr. James received his education in the Baltimore school system. In 1977 he entered into Holy Matrimony with Mildred Elizabeth. James worked for forty years at Calvert Utilities, Inc. He was a loyal and faithful worker. Come rain, snow, sleet or hail he would be up at 4:30 and willingly head off to work. He would walk all the way downtown and catch the light rail. James was affectionately called "Man" and "Turk" by his friends and family. Turk was a very outgoing person who met and made friends everywhere he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Turk was a caring person, and seldom said no when friends or family asked for a favor. He was a creative cook, it was well known that he would and could prepare everything on the pig from the rooster to the tooter. Done to perfection. He was known for his watercress greens and spare ribs, that melted in your mouth. Patricia, who always said Turk was like a father to her, said she loved those home fries, nobody could cook them like Turk. He got great satisfaction from spending time with all his children who truly loved their father. Turk could always keep you laughing about something or other. We will always remember those funny remarks he would come up with. You just had to love him. Turk was also an animal lover, as a child he collected dogs like most boys collected toy cars. At one time Turk had built a pigeon coop in the family yard. That lasted until it was against the law to have pigeons in your yard. He leaves to cherish his everlasting memory: his wife, Mildred; four sons, Branston, Glen, Troy and Lamont; three daughters, Vashti, Erica and Tenaja; his mother, Evelyn Faulkner; one brother, John; three sisters, Ellen, Carolyn and Deborah; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Faulkner I wish to extend my deepest sympathy. Although I didn't know him personally, he sounded like a wonderful man, Death is such a sad thing to bear that we will never be able to come to grips with. It is truly our worst enemy. That is why our heavenly father has purposed to get rid of sickness and death in the very near future. 1st Corinthians 15: 26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing". That promise will come true through the resurrection made possible by the precious blood of our savior, Jesus Christ. Soon instead of tears of sorrow, we will be shedding tears of joy as we welcome our loved ones back from the grave. May these wonderful promises from God give you comfort and peace.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
