“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences at this difficult time. I know your hearts are heavy, because losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. I'd like to leave you with a comforting thought from the bible, which is the sure hope of being reunited with your loved one again, At Acts 24,15 it says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. So all in God's memory will be able to come out of the memorial tombs to the prospect of everlasting life in happy and peaceful conditions. John 5:28,29. All who exercise faith in the ransom of the Christ will be able to welcome their loved ones back from the grave. Daniel 12,2 promises that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up." May the hope of being reunited with your loved one again be an anchor for your souls, and may Jehovah God wrap you in his love, and give you the strength to face another day.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Wade Family and Friends: Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I find great comfort at times like this from the scriptures. Our loving creator promises a time when he will do away with our enemy death. This promise is found  Bible Citations  (Revelation 21:3-4) With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” May you too find comfort from this.##imported-begin##L. Townsend##imported-end##
