“ It's hard to say good-bye to such a great guy as you. We will miss your jokes, sense of humor, warm demeanor and all those fishing stories.. Thankfully we are left with so many fond memories. A real fisherman has crossed that final river and been caught up in God's heavenly net. No doubt he has been judged "good enough to keep". We will miss you Alvin but you'll forever be in our hearts. Rest in Paradise my brother. Morris & Barbara

“ We extend our condolences to the family. May your good memories and the resurrection hope at John 5:28,29 ease your grief. It is wonderful knowing Isa. 46:1 says :God is our refuge and strength. May all of you continue to lean on Him now and in the future.
