

James Tyrone Baylor

October 3, 1940 - February 14, 2011

James T. Baylor, son of the late Clinton and Marjorie Baylor was born on October 3, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 14, 2011 at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

James attended Baltimore City Public School. One of his first jobs was at Johns Hopkins Hospital in the Pharmacy. Later he worked at various home improvement jobs throughout the city.

James was born again. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He will be missed on earth but those who know Christ will see him again in heaven.

James enjoyed family and family gatherings. Everyone knew when he was at the family get together. Whenever you heard lots of laughing you knew he was there. He was always the center of attention and was the main entertainer. James had many talents. He was an excellent cook and enjoyed painting homes. James was a great lover of animals. He was Compassionate and loved old classic movies and movie stars.

James leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Anastasia Anderson, nine grandchildren, Erica, Kenneth, Kevin, Antwan, Daniel, Malik, Sabastian, Erin and David; one sister, Marjorie Pullen, Three living brothers, Albert, Arthur and Lava Baylor, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
