“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ Blue,Blue,Blue,. How can this be? He was the best boss anyone could ask for. He was the nicest man you could ever want as a friend and co-worker. He was so funny,and so ready to join in any kind of mischief we could come up with. From Halloween costumes to a rocking barbecue,to decorating a Bowling Center for contests...to Christmas Parties at the Center....to helping out in the bar or snack bar. (he thought he was helping)....Blue was the best. A real gentleman and a really nice man. We were all told at one time,that we were getting a new manager,that he was a tough EX Marine....we were all holding our breath waiting ,when in comes James Blue. Within 5 minutes of meeting him,we all knew we had a great boss and a friend for life Blue.....you will be greatly missed by a lot of beloved employees and friends.Please know that it was an honor to have been in that group. Semper Fi.

To the family of Blue,our deepest heartfelt sympathy. Please know he was a great person and will be missed by the many who knew him.

To the Family of James Blue;
I know this is a very dark and sad time in your life and I want to send my deepest sympathy to you. I prayer that Jehovah God will comfort and send the needed relief in ever aspect you are attempting to endure. The death of a love one takes just as much life from those who are living as those who have died and yet death has no right to dominate life. However it seems death always seems to come when we least expect it, simply put when we are just not ready. The reason for that is because we were created and endowed with the desire to live on and on. With that said death is truly an enemy to the living and will eventually be bought to nothing according to 1Cor 15:26. So whether our love ones died due to illness, old age, or some negative act or crime bottom line is Jehovah God and Jesus is very much aware of the suffering of each human family and have promised according to the Holy Bible that this suffering is temporary not just for the living but for those who have fallen victim to death. Yes Jesus has been given the authority to resurrect those who have fallen asleep in death according to John 5:28-29. There will soon come a time that the dead will wake from the ground and be apart of the living once again. Dan 12:2; what a joyous time that will be when family members reunite once again. Jehovah has also promised that no one will ever say they are sick (Is 33:24) especially any sickness that will lead to death. Yes according to Rev 21: 4 Jehovah says he will remove all things that cause suffering and pain. He says those thing will be no more and that includes death too. Yes death will be no more. I pray God will embrace you with His love and you continue to know that he cares. Be encouraged and hopeful in knowing James condition is temporary. Jehovah promises all these things and His words will not return without results. Is 55:11. It is truly impossible for Jehovah God to lie. Heb 6:18.
