

James W. Boardley Jr

November 30, 1956 - May 8, 2014

JAMES BOARDLEY, JR., son of Annie D. Boardley and the late James W. Boardley, Sr., was born on November 30, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 8, 2014 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and worked numerous jobs as a laborer. Junie, as we called him, was known for his big, bright smile and his calm and soft-spoken voice, his funny stories with all sorts of sound effects, his fashionable clothes and matching caps. Junie was a carefree, fun and loving guy with a generous spirit. He was a social butterfly and made numerous friends wherever he went. Junie had a deep love for his family and spent his past time with them telling his funny stories, spoiling all the kids and feeding them treats. At times you could find him down in his "man cave" listening to old music, hanging out with Karonn and watching his favorite TV shows, such as Law and Order, The Sopranos, Sons of Anarchy and Frazier. Junie will be missed by all, but remembered best for always saying to you, never say goodbye; a simple see you later is what he needed from you. Junie leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Annie Boardley; devoted daughter, Brittany Boardley; granddaughters, N'Jae and Nahla; siblings, Deborah Lewis, Valarie and Karen Boardley, Reginald (who preceded him), Warren Boardley; stepchildren, Takia Taylor and Roger Edwards; devoted nieces, Rasheena Boardley, Jahfarie Butler and Quetta Crosby; nephews, Kurt and Corey Crosby; special cousins, Garrick Brown and Francine Noel; his little butterflies, Demi and Zion; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
