

James Henry Booker

April 25, 1955 - March 9, 2013

None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself.
If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord;
so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.
Romans 14:7-8

James Henry Booker, "Man" was born April 25, 1955 in Richmond, Virginia. He departed this life on Saturday, March 9, 2013. He was preceded in death by his mother, Joyce Booker and grandmother, Rosa C. Booker.

He was educated in the Richmond Public School system. James was formerly employed with the City of Richmond for 22 years.

James was a loving and devoted father, son, brother and friend. He was loved by all who came to know him. He was a very compassionate and kind-hearted man; always willing to help others in need. In his free time, James enjoyed working on cars and riding his scooter. He was an active member of the 804 Richmond Riders Scooter Club.

We know that he lives in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved him as being upbeat and full of life. We were so fortunate to have had him in our lives and we feel empty without him.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory a devoted daughter, Cherie Williams (Nick); two grandchildren, Lianna and Nicquan Williams; five sisters, Rosetta Fields, Juanita Washington, Jewel and Geneva Booker and Sandra Pate; two brothers, Reginald Booker (Terry) and Tyrone Booker; three brothers-in-law, Reginald Fields, Jeffery Washington and Waymond Pate; a devoted friend, Jacqueline Wiley; a host of other relatives and friends.

He may no longer be with us physically, just remember that he will always be with us in both spirit, memory and you will not be alone.

WE LOVE YOU UNCLE MAN!!!!!!

Crystal Shields - July 21, 2014 at 04:53 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
