

James L. Braswell

October 11, 1945 - August 16, 2010

JAMES LOUIS BRASWELL, SR, son of the late John Henry Arrington and Roseanna Braswell, was born on October 11, 1945. Suddenly he entered to rest on August 16, 2010 at St. Agnes Hospital.

James received his education at Nashville County School in North Carolina. He was employed for many years at Virginia Springs and Central Maintenance.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Linda Summers (Braswell); his two daughter, Felicia Arrington and Tawanda Summers; son James Louis Braswell, Jr.; two stepson, Otis Summers and Reginald Nelson of Silver Spring; two brother, John Arrington; and sister, Gertrude Arrington of North Carolina; and a host of grandchildren, one great-grandchild, Ryant White; other relatives and friends. James made company wherever he went and will never be forgotten. We will always miss him and love him the same. He was preceded in death by brother, Jerome Richardson.

“ I miss you so much. I think about you sometimes, how you used to make us laugh and you was always there when I needed you on somethings. I wish I could turn back the hands of time when you was here, but I know your not. I will continue to remember your memories. One thing I miss about you is I could call you and tell you I need my boys hair cut and you would cut it. R.I.P I Love You! Uncle James
