“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know James Brooks personally but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear to you. I found comfort in reading the Bible, as I'm sure you do too, so I just wanted to share with you one of my favorite accounts found in the book of John in John 11:14,14-44, here it shares with us a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. We can only imagine the tears of joy when every one heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!” and before the very eyes of everyone gathered there he walked toward them from his memorial tomb. We too will experience such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Please pass on my condolences to those who knew and loved James Brooks##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##
