

James J. Brooks

September 8, 1941 - June 16, 2013

JAMES JESSIE BROOKS, the son of the late James Brooks and the late Mary Brooks. He departed this life on June 16, 2013.

James attended the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked at Bethlehem Steel for three years in the early seventies. He also worked at Rockland Industries for nineteen years until 2003.

He loved walking around the park and always smiling. He loved television and music.

He leaves to mourn: his wife of twenty-eight years, Mary Brooks; one son, James R. Brooks (one son, Wayne Brooks preceded him in death); two daughters, Connie Riley and Annette Kenan; one son-in-law, James Riley; one brother, Albert Brooks (two brothers, William Brooks and Wilbert Brooks preceded him in death); two sisters, Novella Brown and Carolyn Moore (two sisters, Agnes Manns and Shirley Turner preceded him in death); five sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law; eight grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Our condolences to family and friends. James-Dad-Grandad has completed his journey and is now at peace. Though we may grieve, feel void and loss we can find comfort in knowing that our merciful Lord Father God has freed him of all pain & illness. He has made him part of a devine eternal plan...

Dear Lord rest and bless souls of all who have transitioned and console us in our grief for them...

Amen

In my Father's house there are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you.
