

James William Brooks

June 27, 1930 - July 28, 2011

James W. Brooks, son of the late James and Louey Dell Brooks. He was born on June 2, 1930 in Lenoir County, North Carolina. After a very lengthy illness, James quietly entered into eternal rest on July 28, 2011.

James received his education in the Lenoir County Public School System. As a teenager, he moved to Baltimore, M.D. To be with his mother. He became employed by College Park Contractors as a bricklayer where he remained a faithful employee until his retirement. He was a founding member of the “Uptown Sporting Club, Inc.” where he served as president for many years up until his death.

In 1983, he joined hands in marriage with longtime friend and soul-mate, Shirley Mae Jones. From this union three girls were born: Tina, Takeia and Michelle. He also gained a step-son: George Williams, whom he loved and accepted as his own. James loved his unconditionally, especially his girls.

He enjoyed cooking, singing, building, and fixing things and playing cards with friends and family. He also had a passion for attending baseball games and going to the Casinos in Atlantic City.

James made numerous friends wherever he went. He was truly a devoted father and friend. If you need a favor and he could help you, he would. If there was something that you just could not resolve, you could sit down with “Brooks” and he would try to help you come up with the solution. He was a good hearted man and a good listener.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife; Shirley M. Brooks, 3 daughters; Tina savage (Darrell), Takeia and Michelle; (preceded in death 1 son: James (Woody) Brooks); 1 step-son; George Williams (Minnie) 4 brothers; Richard (Carolyn), Douglas (preceded in death; Phillip, Jasper and 1 sister; Claudia), sister-in-law; Pearlie Mae; Mother in law; Mae Gladys Jones; Father-in-law; Willie Jones; 1 great Uncle; James Farrow; 8 grandchildren; Darrell, Danielle, Daisia, and Daivon Savage, Micaela Gholson; Desiree, Mavion and Giani Williams; 1 Godson; Donald Brown. And a host of; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of James William Brooks: So sorry for your loss!! As one of Jehovah's Witnesses I want to offer my condolences to your family. Jesus said at John 5:28, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice come out. What a wonderful time that will be when we are able to see our dead loved ones again. If you are interested in learning how you can see them again just contact any one of Jehovah's Witnesses and they will gladly help you. Again I'm so sorry for your loss!!
