

James W. Brown

June 10, 1942 - May 2, 2014

Born on June 10th, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland, JAMES W. BROWN, JR. (known to many as "Buggy" or "Brownie"), the son of the late Katherine and James W. Brown, Sr., departed this world on May 2nd, 2014. He graduated from Frederick Douglass High School and went on to work for the University of Maryland, Baltimore at the age of 18 until he retired with 35 years of service in 1995. He loved working, taking care of his family, taking care of and helping others when his finances allowed him to do so. He liked food, cooking, fishing, cars, photography, traveling, watching old westerns and war movies, playing cards and having a nice family cookout. He loved church and he loved God. He gave God His praise even when there were bad times in his life because he knew that with God in his life He would surely turn things around for him. He gave God His praise even towards the end because he knew his time was expiring and he wanted God to know how thankful he was for his life and all the blessings He had bestowed upon him. James was married for 37 years to his late wife Gloria R. Brown. They had 6 kids: James, Jimmy, Walter, Edward, Diane and Lester who now James leaves to mourn along with 1 sister, 2 daughters-in-law, 11 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren along with a host of other relatives and friends. The last 10 years of James' life he had a loving relationship with Ms. Dot Mannker who was very special to him and has become a great friend and member of the family. Dad, Brownie, Buggy, James, Pops, Pop Pop Brown: We, the family, thank you for your love, support, generosity, kindness, devotion and all that you placed into maintaining our family and helping us become the adults that we are. We love you, will truly miss you but will forever keep your memory deep in hearts and minds.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. It is so hard to say goodbye to a loved one. Happily Jesus Christ has promised that one day “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5: 28, 29) At that time we will be reunited with our dear loved ones. I truly hope that the words of Jesus Christ can bring you a measure of comfort. Again please accept my sincere condolences.

“ PopPop Brown... Words alone cannot express how much I appreciate all you have done for our grandsons. You were the best poppop in the universe. I'll forever miss you and I'll forever be grateful. We will do our best to raise Camren and Karron to be productive, positive, young men. Luv u always. Donna
