

James Brown Jr.

October 2, 1945 - January 10, 2015

JAMES BROWN JR. known as “Huck” to most of us was born on October 2, 1945 to the late James and Victoria Brown Sr. James departed this life after a lengthy illness.

Huck received his education in Baltimore City School and graduated from Dunbar High School. He was baptized at First Baptist Church and later joined St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Huck was drafted in the United States Army. He worked as a truck driver for various companies such as the Wood and Ice Company and the Sanitation Department before settling down as a Vacuum Truck Driver for Baltimore Gas & Electric. Huck was outgoing and a lovable person who helped and loved everyone. Huck was a kind and gentle soldier.

Huck married Carolyn and out of this union one child was born, Josette. He later married his “soul mate”, Melanie and gained three stepsons: Marcus, Myrin and Michael. Huck had four sisters who preceded him in death: Shirley, Pansey, Daisey and Helen along with his mother- and father-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Matthew and June Walker.

Huck leaves to mourn: his wife, Melanie Ann Brown; his daughter, Josette; three stepsons, Marcus, Myrin and Michael; six sisters, Gertrude, Mary, Marcella, Vera, Fannie and Beckey; one sister-in-law, Linda Mosley; two brothers-in-law, Andre and Anthony Walker; and one grandson, Jerris and a host of other relatives and friends.
