“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm 37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort and he will sustain you during this difficult time (2Cor1:3-4; Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. You have my deepest sympathy. At such difficult times, we can look to the best source of comfort, which is Jehovah God and his son, Christ Jesus, who comforts us during all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. Jehovah has promised an end to all death, and a resurrection to life for all those in the memorial tombs. 1st Cor 15:26, John 5:28,29. The bible tells us at Psalm 68:20 that the true God is a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, belong the ways out from death. Yes he created us, and he certainly knows how to bring us back to life. By means of a resurrection millions will live again. Jesus also made this possible by giving up his precious life for us. At John 11:25 he gives us this assurance, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May these scriptures bring much comfort to your family in the days ahead. If you would like to know more concerning God's wonderful purpose for the dead, and a beautiful world that is soon coming to satisfy our desire for true peace, please contact me at my e-mail address, and I will gladly assist you. Take care family.##imported-begin##R
