

James Burns, Sr.

May 18, 1960 - January 16, 2016

James “Ripple” Burns, Sr. of Richmond, Virginia was born May 18, 1960 to Gladys Juanita Bentley. James was called home to be with the Lord on January 16, 2016.

James was educated in Richmond Public Schools. He was always known as the life of the party, the best-dressed, and could dance until the sun came up. James was a devoted husband, father and papa and did whatever needed to be done to ensure his family knew they were loved. James had many hobbies which consisted of painting, sewing, and caring for his many pets including fish, snakes, turtles, and his beloved dog, DJ. He became employed by Sodexo in Anthem Cafeteria as a chef where he was loved and respected by co-workers before his health problems prevented him from work.

James is survived by his wife of thirty years, Corithia Burns; two daughters, Talisa Taylor and Jamika Burns; son James Burns, Jr.; three grandchildren, Tahlia Holloway, Breona Boshier, and Keomonie Hart; mother, Gladys Juanita Bentley; sisters, Rosalyn Rene, Rolanda Rolette Burns and Felicia Sha Bentley; nieces Teandra, Roshawnda and Shamika Burns; nephews, Damien and Chauncey Burns, Octavius Bentley and Eric Yarborough; one devoted friend, Jeff Cotton; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Ripple, was a fun person to be around. He was the only person out of all the projects that has his only picture developing black room. He'll take your picture and come back later that day what all of your pictures. Ripple was a very neat person, he love keeping his car clean, always dress to a tee. Ripple was a good husband, father, grandpa, brother, a gif friend to many. RIP JAMES (RIPPLE)BURNS
