

James C. Brown

August 19, 1935 - September 13, 2009

JAMES C. BROWN, son of the late Junious and Christen Brown, was born on August 19, 1935 in Henderson, North Carolina. He departed this life on September 13, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the public schools of Henderson, N.C. At the age of twenty, he and his family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, and at that time he began his full-time job at Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point. He worked there for forty-three years until he retired in 1997. He married Alice M. Brown, and out of that union one child was born, Kimberly. James had numerous friends and was known to give a good disco, crab feast or bus trip to Atlantic City. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Alice M. Brown; daughter, Kimberly Winkey; son-in-law, Eric Winkey; granddaughter, LeKeshi Brown-Grimes; grandson-in-law, Richard Grimes; three sisters, Viola Perry, Margaret Butler and Joyce Butler; three brothers, William and Roy Brown, and Samuel Karnatu-Bey; sister-in-law, Carolyn Karnatu-Bey; nieces, nephews, brothers-in-law, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ This goes to the family of Mr. Brown, you have my sympathy. May you find comfort in knowing that in God's word the bible at John 5:28,29 we can see our love ones whom we loss in death again. May this thought brighten your day knowing that Jehovah God will take care of all matters. Derek Farmer##imported-begin##D. Farmer##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Christ Jesus, bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
