

James C. Wilson

January 11, 1928 - October 31, 2004

James C. Wilson was born to the late Chance Goodman and Mary Wilson on January 11, 1928. He was known to some as “Jimmie” and to others as “Daddy Grace”. Jimmy was educated in the Baltimore City School system and after high school entered the United States Army in 1950. During his time in the military, he served as a Private 2nd class and was honorably discharged in 1956. Upon his discharge from the military, Jimmie worked for many years at the Maryland Shipbuilding Drydock company and retired from NSA in 1992. Jimmie was baptized at an early age and a member of the United House of Prayer for All People, where he played the horn for the church band. He was fond of music, especially jazz and attended many live performances. He was a founding member and had many friends at the Mount Vernon social Club, where he was known as the “best dressed cat” of Pennsylvania Avenue. Jimmie was a loving and caring father, who ensured his girls were equipped to handle the challenges of life. He set very high standards for them and expected nothing less. He was a good provider and gave his girls the best. Once his grandchildren began to come along he applied these same standards for them as well. He leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Reginald Lane; four daughters, Deborah Alston, Sharon Cornish, L’Tosha Young and April Black. Three sons-in-law, Thomas Alston, Toney Cornish and Isaac Young; one sister, Helena Goodman and one very special cousin, Virginia Doughty, thirteen grandchildren, three great grandchildren and two dear friends June Jones and Joanne Black.

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your great loss. I offer the family my condolences. But the Bible offers man a hope that no human can offer. John 5:28,29 describes a time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". So we will get to see our dead loved ones again. For now, we must wait on Jehovah God and do his will.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. It seems so unfair that death has the power to take away our love ones. However, may you find comfort from"...the Father of tender mercies and the God of comfort..." , who promises that soon there will be a resurrection of those who went asleep in death. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 and John 5:28,29. May you all continue to find encouragement from the scriptures.##imported-begin##V. Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family may you find strength thru faith in your loss. I'm sure he has found out who the REAL "DADDY GRACE" is, and will have to tell the Lord why he said what he did about the founder, the true faith of Jesus he established according to St. Mathew 21 chapter-13vs., isaiah-56ch-7vs, Mark 11ch -17vs and Luke 19ch -46vs. May these scriptures lead you to the light of God.##imported-begin##R. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
