

James Carlos Jacobs

June 24, 1936 - August 6, 2005

JAMES JACOBS SR., son of the late Sara Jacobs and John E. Sullivan, was born on June 24, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. He went to his final calling on August 6, 2005 at the age of 69. James attended the Baltimore City Public School System, and graduated from Dunbar Senior High School. Following high school graduation he married Doris Watts; out of that union they had five children. He was employed by Lord Baltimore Press Paper Company, which he retired from after 20 years of dedicated service. James will be remembered for his creativity and his thoughtfulness. He loved listening to his radio. He had a kind and giving spirit. Left to cherish his loving memory is: five children, Peggy (Diane) Chambers, Valerie Jacobs, James (Jake) Jacobs Jr., Hope Jacobs, and Angelo (Lopey) Jacobs; eight grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, one son-in-law, Leonard Chambers; brother, Lloyd Marcus; late sister, Doris Coles; three late brothers, Wilbert Jacobs, Joe Jacobs, and John Jacobs; devoted cousin and friend Thelma Turner; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy at the loss of your loved one. As you find comfort in your precious memories, know you can you also rely on, "...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...", (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) for strength and comfort as well.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Death is such an enemy of life. We were created to live forever, but due to the sin of our first parents, we all fall short of the mark. At Romans 6:23 it states: "For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord". Yes, Jesus Christ paid the price for sin and death by giving us the gift of everlasting life. Soon, on the last day, you will see your loved ones who are asleep in death, again. I hope this brings you comfort.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
