“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Losing a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. We miss them so much. It seems like an unreality when we think about the fact that they are really gone, and we can't see their beautiful smile anymore. God never desired this pain and grief for us. It was not a part of his plan. That is why he sent his most precious son, Jesus to make eternal life possible for all who would put faith in him. John 3:16 tells us, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." Through his precious blood many will come back to life. At John 11,25 Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." That resurrection hope is a sure hope that will reunite many family members who have lost loved ones. So if we have true faith and trust in Jehovah's promises, and live our lives in obedience to him; then we have the assurance that we will see our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, please accept my condolences. Sometimes it seems difficult to find comfort when we have loss a loved one. May you be comforted in the hope of the resurrection. Jesus demonstrated this at John 11:38-44 with his friend Lazarus (please take time to read). We are also comforted at Rev 21:4, when God says he is going to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. With these conditions gone we can look forward to paradise. May this bring you strength and encouragement during your loss.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
