

James O. Clanton

June 9, 1927 - October 13, 2010

JAMES OTIS CLANTON, son of the late James and Blanche Clanton, was born on June 9, 1927 in Macon, North Carolina.

Following a short illness at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, he departed this life on Wednesday, October 13, 2010.

As a young man, he joined the United States Army. He received an Honorable Discharge on June 19, 1946.

James received the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior in Warrington, North Carolina. He was united in Holy Matrimony to Mertice Olivia Montgomery on May 7, 1952. Later they migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. Out of this union were born eight children: James, Joyce, Doris, Vanessa, Larry, Tony, Fay and Regina.

James married Carolyn Norris on May 15, 1990. No children were born out of this union. They were happily married for twenty years.

James was educated in North Carolina. He was employed at sparrows Point as a foreman. He also worked at Howard T. Foley as a truck driver and retired in 1989. James was a great masonry worker. He loved to farm, hunt and fish and enjoyed watching sports.

James was a loving father and husband. He was a loving brother to his only surviving brother, Hunter Lee Clanton. They had a very close relationship.

He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Carolyn Clanton; five daughters, three sons, one brother, two sons-in-law, three daughters-in-law, fourteen grandchildren, Reagan Jr., Dana, timere, Lakea, Danielle, Erica, Kierra, Tiffany, shaylen, Asia, Aaron, Michelle, Markia and Marquies; eleven great-grandchildren, a longtime closed friend, Richard Morris; and a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
