

James Coit

July 17, 1959 - December 16, 2012

JAMES L. COIT was born to the late Carrie and James Coit in Baltimore, Maryland on July 17, 1959.

James was affectionately known to many of his friends as “Shorty James,” and by his family as “Jamie.”

Jamie grew up in the Cherry Hill Community where he was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System. Jamie was a true friend to everyone he encountered and will be sincerely missed by all who crossed his path in life.

Jamie was a mild-mannered person that loved life to the fullest and would give you anything he had.

Jamie liked watching movies and he was a lover of shoes, especially tennis shoes. He kept up with the latest sportswear. In his pastime he enjoyed watching TV and eating good food. He loved sitting down reminiscing with his son, James Jr.

Back in the year 1976, James met the love of his life, Cassie Patricia (Pat). Through this union they had two children, Octavia Toby and James L. Coit Jr. James and his children had a very special bond. James departed this life on December 16, 2012.

James leaves to cherish fond memories: his daughter, Octavia; son, James Jr.; seven grandchildren, Jamiera, Cameron, Dymone, Jaedah, Daejah, Shaude and Melody; aunt, Lossie Sole (New Jersey); uncle, Willie Powell (New Jersey); brother, Lawrence "LB;" three sisters, Shirley, Mamie and Carrie "Ann" (sister, Irene preceded him in death); close friend, Ronnie; five nieces, five nephews, twenty-three great-nieces and -nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
