

James Coleman Jr.

November 3, 1958 - March 23, 2017

James Coleman, Jr., was born November 3, 1958 to Carol and James Coleman, Sr. He was called home to the pearly gates of heaven on March 23, 2017 to be with his loved ones gone before him.

He was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. As a forklift operator, James was well skilled.

He had a passion for western movies and watching television. James valued people and never met a stranger. He always had a knack for making friends and found delight in giving people nicknames. People fondly called him J.W., Jake, Buck, Jimmy and Jay. James was gifted with a great sense of humor and loved to make people laugh.

James Coleman, Jr. is pre-deceased by his father, James Coleman, Sr. and his sister, Carol Coleman. He is survived by his wife, Hilda Coleman; son, James Coleman, III; one grandchild, Jordan; mother, Carol Coleman Nesbit (Jasper); three step-children, Tina, John and Odell; five step-grandchildren and nine step-great-grandchildren; his sidekick, ace and beloved brothers/cousin, Anthony "Tony" Randolph (Joan) and friend, Joe Heiskell; aunts, Lucy Hayth and Gloria Butler (William), and a host of loving cousins and friends.

James completed this chapter and the next page of life has been turned. He truly will be missed, but his rest is well earned.

James will be remembered for his gentle, kind disposition, and all the love he has always showed his family. May the love of God be with him eternally!
