

James L. Crowell Jr.

March 5, 1961 - December 19, 2012

JAMES LEE CROWELL JR., son of the late Annie and James Crowell Sr. was born on March 5, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life unexpectedly on Wednesday, December 19, 2012 at Union Memorial Hospital.

James received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked for Pittsburg Paints and Glass for many years. He later worked as a cook for Red Lobster Restaurants and Old Country Buffet until he became disabled.

James was liked by all who knew him. His smile and laughter will never be forgotten. He was well known throughout the community for his giving spirit. Bubbles, as we all know him, would often neglect himself to care for others. He took in many homeless people through the years and loved them like they were his family. He also fed every stray cat that showed up at his door because he refused to allow any of God's creations to go hungry.

James leaves to cherish his memory: two brothers, Melvin and Raleigh; five sisters, Pearl, Bertha, Sharon, Hazel and Debra; aunts, uncles and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
