

James Curry

June 3, 1943 - September 25, 2006

James Curry departed this life into eternal rest on Monday, September 25, 2006 in his home. He was born June 3, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Eugene and Elizabeth Curry. He was joined in Holy Matrimony on April 3, 1963 to Carrie Mae English. To this union three sons were born, James Antonio Curry, Jr., Darrell Alexander Curry, and Martin Dion Curry. James was a Decorated Retired Veteran of the United States Air Force where he served for twenty years. James and his family were avid world travelers. James' greatest joy was camping, traveling and being with his family and friends. The love he had for his family and friends was beyond measure. James would do anything for anybody. He was a brother to his siblings and a wonderful neighbor. He loved people and people loved him. James leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Carrie Mae English of Baltimore, Md.; two sons, Darrell A. Curry of Alexandria, Virginia and Martin D. Curry of Baltimore; two grandsons and one great-granddaughter. He is survived by five sisters, a mother-in-law, brothers-in-law, four sisters-in-law, a host of uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews.

“ Our heart goes out to you Mrs. Curry and the rest of your family. I really liked (Jim) because he cared about PEOPLE. I once told him about how sick my Aunt and Uncle were living in Detroit, MI. It was weeks later he asked me how they were doing.... That kinda shocked me that he remembered our last conversation. You take care.##imported-begin##Jewel W. Henry, Sr.##imported-end##

“ Please be comforted by the wonderful promises in the bible, a promise of peace, and an end to all sorrow, sickness, and death. We all long for relief from this terrible enemy of our happiness. Noone wants to lose their loved ones, amd not be able to see their faces or talk to them anymore. Jehovah God never meant such saddness for the human race, and he purposes to restore earth to it"s paradise condition as it was when he created Adam. Isaiah 25:8 says that one day he will swallow up death forever." As we await his promises, please find comfort in your precious memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##

“ MRS. CURRY, MY HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES GO OUT TO YOUR ENTIRE FAMILY. I WORKED WITH JIM FOR 13 YEARS AT THE POST OFFICE. HE WAS A VERY FRIENDLY GUY WHO ENJOYED PEOPLE. BECAUSE HE HAD A GOOD SENSE OF HUMOR PEOPLE FELT AT EASE AROUND HIM. MAY YOU DRAW COMFORT FROM THE GOD OF ALL COMFORT DURING THIS TIME. (2 CORINTHIANS 1:3,4) SOON THE TIME WILL COME WHEN THOSE WHO HAVE DIED WILL LIVE AGAIN. THIS WILL BE DONE BY MEANS OF A RESURRECTION. (ACTS 24:15) MAY YOU HAVE CONFIDENCE IN ALL THAT GOD PROMISES.##imported-begin##ALBERT WASHINGTON, JR.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your great loss. I am glad to know that he was loving and devoted to his family and friends. The Bible gives us just what we need at the right time. At Job 14:14,15 it says, "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Our Heavenly Father has a strong desire to bring back to life those in His memory. I hope you can find comfort from these words.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill, Jr.##imported-end##
