

James Darriell Williams

September 28, 1958 - February 24, 2006

On Friday, February 24, 2006 at Bon Secours Hospital, JAMES DARRIELL WILLIAMS, son of the late Evelyn M. Robinson, departed this life after a lengthy illness. James, K.A. Darriell, was born in Washington, D.C. on September 28, 1958, where he attended the D.C. Public Schools. After graduating with honor, he worked various government jobs, one of which he worked for many years at the White House for President Reagan. James later met and married the late Sandra Fisher at St. Stephen's Baptist Church where he was also baptized. James, K.A. Darriell, later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he joined the First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church. "Pop-Pop," as he was called by his grandchildren who loved him dearly, was loved by everyone he came in contact with. Darriell leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Latia C. Brown; stepson, Kris Fisher; son-in-law, Donnell Brown; three grandchildren, Ronell, Darnell Jr. and Sade Brown all of Washington, D.C.; four sisters, Alma Williams, Deborah Williams, Renee Woods, Doretha Robinson; one brother, John Calvin Williams; two nieces, eight nephews, one great-nephew all of Baltimore, Md.; his mother-in-law, one sister-in-law, six brothers-in-law, and loving and devoted aunt, Mary Alice Williams all of Washington, D.C.; uncle, Frank Yates of Temple Hills, Md.; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Williams. As you all hold onto the memories of Mr. Williams, also hold onto the comfort from Almighty God who promises that soon "...many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up". Daniel 12:2. May this prove to be a source of comfort to you all.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr Williams, you have my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in the sure hope of the ressurection, which will reunite us with our loved ones who have died. Isaiah 25:8 says that God will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all fces. May you be comforted by the thought of one day seeing your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Williams, I offer my most sincere and heartfelt condolences. Death is such a sad and tragic time in our lives, something that was never meant to be. When we suffer through such grief, it's good to consult God's word the bible, which can be a great source of comfort at such times. In it we can read of Jehovah's wonderful purpose of bringing about a beautiful paradise, where sickness and death will be a thing of the past. 1st Cor. 15:26 lets us know, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." May it comfort you to know that God has wonderful things in store for us, and we can have the joy of seeing our loved ones again in the resurrection. Acts 24:15##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
