

James Elliott Davis

September 13, 1926 - August 26, 2019

James Elliott Davis was born to Ben and Parthenia Dixie Davis on September 13, 1926 in West Virginia. James married Bertha Lee Ryan and to their union, 3 children were born. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife Shirley; daughter, Patricia; sons, Jerome, Conrad and Keith; sisters, Zenobia, Naomi, Ruth, Barbara, and Sylvia; brothers, Ben Jr., William, and Henry.

James was a phenomenal businessman who could make a way out of no way. He was dedicated to making a living just as much as he was to opening his home and heart of the multitude of people. Providing food and shelter to those in need, he was well known in his Westend Community. His personality and sense of humor always made him the life of the party. You could always find him in his yard surrounded by friends laughing and living their “Best Life” In his spare time he loved fishing, gardening, playing numbers, and watching classic cowboy shows. In 2015 he began studying with Jehovah’s Witness to gain a greater understanding.

James made his transition peacefully on the morning of Monday, August 26, 2019. Left to cherish his loving memories are his dedicated, loving, daughter and caregiver, Zenobia; daughter, Thelma; sons, Tyrone, Jeffrey, and Eric. His life will also be remembered by his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, step-children and a host of friends.
