

James Earl Dawson

August 8, 1948 - February 20, 2021

He married the love of his life and best friend, Delores Dawson, on January 8, 1971 at Hemingway Temple Church in Baltimore, Maryland. James helped raise his three sons from the very beginning to be respectful, humble, trustworthy and more important who GOD was and to put GOD first in everything they do.

James was a good person at heart. He was very humble, kind, soft-spoken, always had time to answer a question or solve a problem, he would lend a helping hand whenever needed without even being asked, no matter how big or small. James loved working on vehicles and motorcycles you would often see him under the hood of someone's car. He is dearly missed by his loved ones and anyone who knew him. He touched so many people in so many places.

James is survived by his wife, Delores; his sons Darryl, Vincent, and Vernon; his grandchildren D'Andre, Kiana, Jasmine, Teyla, Jordan, Alyssa, Alex, Aiden, Lana, Nolan; and his sisters, Linda Hunter, Ann Ore. Mary Chapman, sisters in law, brothers in law, and host of nieces and nephews.

“ Brother James Earl Dawson is the brother that would be there where ever and whenever you needed him. He never showed signs that he was being bothered, he owned a Godly spirit and he gave of himself to help others without regard to his own needs, with a smile. This man --- our Brother --- is a true Godly man, whose spirit will live on in our memories. His legacy is evident in that of his family, his devoted Queenly Wife and dedicated and loving Sons, grand children, family members and friends. This brother didn't know how to say no. We Bless God that He did not say no to Bro. Dawson. When we call him Brother, we say it with truth because he is our brother. Rest well our Brother --- rest well! The Sons of Allen salute you with the Love of the resurrected Jesus the Christ!

Blessings

Bless God
