

James Trusty Dean

February 21, 1943 - January 26, 2021

James Trusty Dean, son of late parents Kathryn and Charles Dean and devoted husband to Helen Dean was born on February 21, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. The Lord in his mercy took him home quietly on Tuesday, January 26, 2021.

James, known as “Scoop” received his formal education from Dunbar High School in Baltimore Maryland.

He worked on the assembly line at General Motors on Broening Highway for more than 29 years before retiring in 1993.

James was confirmed at St. Philip’s Lutheran Church in his early years.

Scoop was a devoted husband to Helen for over 55 years; their bond was inseparable. They went everywhere together. He was also the devoted father to Kim, Andre and James Trinell Dean. He was the brother of Doris Dean who predeceased him. Scoop was the proud grandfather of Dontaz, Darian, Nyasia, Andre Jr. and Nimesha Dean. He was also proud of his great-grandsons Dontaz, Gabriel, and Noah Dean.

Scoop was a family man and devout cousin, uncle and friend to many people. He went out of his way to help family and friends. He loved to talk and provide fatherly advice and tell a few jokes to anyone he spoke with. He opened his home for family members to visit and spend the weekends. He was a great dad who lead by example by working hard and putting his family first.

He was remembered for his Yellow Cadillac and the Dodge Van he brought to transport family and friends on various trips and shopping sprees. He loved sports, especially Basketball, Football, Weightlifting and Boxing; he watched Muhammad Ali train in-person. He loved reading books that kept him educated in Black history and culture.

James Trusty Dean, is survived by his wife, Helen Dean; children, Kim, Andre and wife, Nichaun Dean and James Trinell Dean; grandchildren, Dontaz and wife, Natasha Dean, Darian Dean, Nyasia Dean, Andre Dean, Jr. and Nimesha Dean; great-grandchildren, Dontaz Dean, Gabriel Dean, and Noah Dean. He is also survived by an aunt and uncle and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ This loss is heavy on my heart. I can't express how much Mr. Dean has always been apart of every major milestone in my life. My graduations, the birth of his grandchildren, every job celebration, every holiday celebration. Mr. Dean you have done so much for me and you have given me the most ultimate gift of your love, trust and your oldest son Andre. You will always have the seat at the head of my table.
