

James Doswell

July 28, 1921 - August 27, 2003

JAMES H. DOSWELL, SR., son of the late Anthony and Gertrude Doswell, was born on July 28, 1921 in Blackstone, Virginia. He departed this life on August 27, 2003 after a lengthy illness. James received his formal education in Prospect, Virginia. Upon completion of his education in 1949, James left Blackstone to come to Baltimore to follow and find his "Soul Mate", Rosa Stokes. The following year, James and Rosa were married and out of this union ten children were born (seven preceded him in death). "Tate" or "Country Boy", as he was affectionately known, was employed by Sparrows Point in 1950 and worked there for thirty years until he retired. In 1954, James found Jesus Christ and joined Southern Baptist Church under Rev. Grant, where he was a faithful member every Sunday. Once Tate retired, he opened a garage where he washed and worked on cars and sold snowballs. The garage was his livelihood and where all of his friends would meet and just hang out. James made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him, young and old. He was a devoted husband and father and most of all a good man. He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Rosa Doswell; one daughter, Sharon Fitzgerald of Fayetteville, North Carolina; two sons, James Doswell Jr. and Anthony Doswell; one sister, Nettie Benion of Blackstone, Virginia; six grandchildren, Cynthia Whittaker, Andrea Tait, Sharonda Jeffries, Keecha and Malaya Fitzgerald and Travis Doswell; eight great-grandchildren; two nieces, Toni and Brenda; one sister-in-law, one brother-in-law and grandson-in-law; a host of relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gae way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comfort us with the hope of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
