

James E. Brown

July 15, 1956 - August 14, 2005

JAMES EDWARD BROWN, JR., son of the late James E. Sr. and Bessie Louise Clanton-Brown, was born on July 15, 1956. He departed this life on Sunday, August 14, 2005, after a very brief illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was baptized at an early age at Good Hope Baptist Church in Virginia. Later he joined Ebenezer Baptist Church in Baltimore. James loved to read the Bible and was always on a constant quest for a closer relationship with God. Everywhere James went, you would hear him telling of the goodness and mercies of the Lord especially in his own life. James began working at age twelve with his godfather, Jake McGriff, for the City of Baltimore. He learned at an early age that he did not like to be confined or work inside so he began doing "Handy-man" work. He did work briefly for about 1 year at Alliance and the port of Baltimore City for 11/2 years. On February 14, 2002 he married the former Charity Jordan and from this union, he adopted three children, Donte and Lakeisha Jordan and Misha Pugh, along with four grandsons, Desmond, John, Wayne and Donte. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Charity Brown; his stepchildren; one son, Antonio Wilkens; two sisters, Robin Jeffries and Suzette Palmer (VA); one brother, Rickey Brown, Sr.; his very special godmother, Mabel McGriff of South Carolina; three godsisters, April Witherspoon, Laura Hunt and Regina Bowman; two godbrothers, Clarence and Jonathan McGriff; four brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, seven aunts, one uncle, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear.##imported-begin##Darlene Buchanan & The Thornton Family##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ James along with my dad taught me to be a woman. I was the one who was blessed. He just put up with my immaturity. I wish he could know how important his life was for me. I wish he could know how much I miss him.##imported-begin##Darlene##imported-end##
