

James E. Johns

June 2, 1955 - April 21, 2003

James E. Johns III, affectionately known as Boogie, son of Evangelist Mary M. and James E. Johns, Jr., was born on June 2, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland at City Hospital. He departed this life after a lengthy illness on Monday evening, April 21, 2003 at 2:15 p.m. at Gilchrist Hospice Center. He graduated from Samuel Gunthers Senior High School. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee at Grace Davison's Chemical Company. He was baptized at highway Christian Church where he later received the gift of the Holy Ghost, under the leadership of Bishop Charles R. Brown. He later moved his membership to Christ Temple Holiness Church under the leadership of Rev. B. Spence. He was a very proud father of two sons, James and Jason Johns. He adopted Clenique Davis as a daughter of his own. He has three grandsons, James and Jordan Johns and Kenneth. Boogie enjoyed sports, especially playing basketball and shooting pool. Boogie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. One of his special buddies was John McClean. He leaves to mourn: his devoted mother, Mary Johns; father, James Johns Jr.; a very devoted cousin, (Big Sis.) Carolyn Chambers; brother, Brian Johns; two sons, James and Jason Johns one daughter, Clenique Davis; three grandson, James and Jordan Johns and Kenneth; Octavia Koger (known as Sis.); two nephews, Johnny Koger and Brian Jr.; six uncles, eight aunts, and a host of cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James E. Johns

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ James E. Johns

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The good Lord understands what it is you're going through, and He's the One who best knows how to comfort and care for you. So we're praying that He'll always be close, both now and in the future, too. God Bless you and Your Family##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM