

James E. Jones (Eddie)

December 27, 1933 - March 18, 2006

JAMES E. JONES SR., son of the late Madeline and Charles Jones, was born December 27, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 18, 2006 shortly after a back surgery. He received his education in the Baltimore public schools. He enjoyed doing construction work and recently retired from John Awal Construction Company as a cement finisher. "Papa," as he was affectionately known, was a good housekeeper and a very creative man who enjoyed cooking for the family cookouts and get-togethers. He even fed the neighborhood cat. He was always called upon for advice, no matter what the situation may be, whether it was money or not. If it involved money, Papa would always say, "Baby, I'm sorry; I ain't got it." James was married to the late Rosetta V. Jones, who departed this life on September 11, 2000. He was a good husband, father, grandfather and brother. He looked forward to his brother, Charles Jones Jr., calling to say, "What's up old man?" He leaves to mourn: his five children, Sandra Jones, James Jones Jr., Etta Harvin, Maurice Jones and Melvin Jones; one brother, Charles Jones Jr.; daughter-in-law, Tonia Jones; son-in-law, Robert Harvin; two sisters-in-law, Virginia Bate and Denise Ashe Jones; grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James E. Jones (Eddie)

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi Jones 's Family! May the God of all comfort be with you all in the lost of your dear love one. Losing someone in death is hard. Words can not convey how a person may be feeling. Our Heavenly Father knows how we feel and cares for us The bible has many uplifting scriptures such as Isa. 33:24, Isa.25:8 ,Isa.66:13. May these help to comfort you all . I am sending my sincere condolences to the family. sincerely Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is something we can never come to grips with. No matter how we lose our loved ones the pain is so hard to bear. I am so sorry your family had to experience the pain of losing a loved one. God really cares about our sorrow, and he has purposed to end all suffering and death. !st Cor. 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Jehovah allowed his precious son Jesus to suffer a horrible death so that we could have life everlasting. Jesus himself said, "I have come so that they might have life, and might have it in abundance. May you be comforted by God"s promises as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM